

DV101

Introduction to Domestic Violence and JBWS

JBWS and the Morris County Coordinated Community Response Team would like to invite you to attend one of our DV101 classes. In this class you will learn about domestic violence: what it is and who it affects. You will also learn about the services offered by JBWS, how to engage with someone you think might be experiencing abuse, and what the Morris County Coordinated Community Response is all about.

Training options

We are offering 4 different classes around the county for Domestic Violence awareness month.

- Tuesday, September 29, 2:00 pm to 3:30 pm at Child and Family Resources
- Wednesday, October 7, 12:00 pm to 1:30 pm at Drew University
- Tuesday, October 20, 12:00 pm to 1:30 pm on zoom
- Thursday, October 29, 10:00 am to 11:30 am at the Morris County Library

Sign Up Here

